An excellent group of short stories of men and women caught up in war. In each case, "nonbeliever" ends up - as the book title suggests - with Grace. Of course it could have helped me to have my British cousin listed in the Acknowledgments section of the book. Actually that led me to the book but the stories were, each in their own way, compelling.

This fascination led me to read War and Grace: Short Biographies from the World Wars, a book of brief biographies written by Don Stephens. The thirteen biographies have one thing in common - the subjects are all Christians. A few of these people were believers long before the war began, while others were converted during or after the war.
