Biblical doctrine teaches us the nature and the character of God (Psalm 90:2; 97:2; John 4:24), the path of salvation through faith (Ephesians 2:8–9; Romans 10:9–10), instruction for the church (1 Corinthians 14:26; Titus 2:1–10), and God ' s standard of holiness for our lives (1 Peter 1:14–17; 1 Corinthians 6:18–20).

What is doctrine? | GotQuestions.org

Doctrine is something that is taught; a principle or creed of principles presented for acceptance or belief; a system of beliefs. In Scripture, doctrine takes on a broader meaning. In the Evangelical Dictionary of Biblical Theology this explanation of doctrine is given: "Christianity is a religion founded on a message of good news rooted in the significance of the life of Jesus Christ.

Man's explanation of himself lies not in man but in God. At the very end or bottom of the line of all our solutions as mankind in this present world and eternity is theological and spiritual. Thus the solutions and answers of mankind are spiritual and found in scripture. God's offers in His church doctrine the pillars of life for us. We were made for eternity and there is nothing temporal that can satisfy our eternal need. The true New Testament Church now stands as man final solutions in its Theology. True Christian theology is the Word of God and is remotely a teaching not bound by time or space, and incomparable to any other teaching of truth. Doctrine is the guide for indoctrination. We cannot read hardly any text in the early church's teaching, either from Christ or His apostles without realization of truth unveiled for us to understand the will of God through doctrinal truth. Christian doctrine means literally "teaching" or "instruction" and may be defined as the fundamental truths of the Bible arranged in systematic form. A study of doctrine is also called "theology." Theology is also a "treatise or reasoned discourse about God." Theology or doctrine may be described as the science which deals with our knowledge of God and His relations to man. It is a science because it is a systematic and a logical study, arrangement of certified facts. Sometimes doctrine is set forth as a dogma in the church. As a dogma, doctrinal teaching is the church's statement of the truth placed in a church's creed. There must be doctrine for the body of ministry in Christ to know its foundations, teachings, faith, order, etc. The Apostles, as headship in the church warned against underdeveloped believers. They warned against ignorance, indifference, coldness, apathy, sin and the failures to live up to the Lord's commands in His doctrines. The early apostles were the first to experience the baptism of the Holy Spirit. They taught the empowerment of God's spirit within believers to live up to the words of Christ and His Kingdom standard in this present world (Titus

2:11-13). Ignorance is a thief. Again, the Lord Jesus Christ is the owner of the Church and declared that He is building His Kingdom through the Church. As Designer and Architect, God only has one pattern for the church. We know that God has firmly established in heaven, a pattern for all things (Hebrews 9:23). There is one blueprint, and all the laborers who build Kingdom values are requested to build according to His blueprint. This being so, there is no science, philosophy, and art, social or political thought that can answer man's explanation of himself outside of God's plan, explanation, pattern and blueprint. Doctrine is a Divine blueprint for man configured with God's overall view of all things that has been, that is present and is to come!

"A history of doctrines of the early Church, written and arranged with exceptional clarity by a leading patristic scholar, the principal of St. Edmund Hall, Oxford. Canon Kelly describes the development of the principal Christian doctrines from the close of the first century to the middle of the fifth, and from the end of the apostolic age to the council of Chalcedon. His book thus covers the great doctrinally creative period in the Church's history, the centuries in which there was a constant upsurge of fresh ideas before the settled formalism of both the East and West. He gives the student and invaluable outline of Church history and patrology against which to place the evolving theological doctrines which he summarises and expounds" -- Back cover.
