If the requirements are met, then the H-4 or L-2 EAD holder can request unemployment benefits, but only until the expiration date of their valid EAD card. Should H-4 and L-2 EAD holders file for unemployment benefits, it will not be considered as a public benefit under USCIS' February 24th public charge rule. In their policy manual, USCIS clearly states that it does not consider unemployment benefits in the public charge inadmissibility determination.
