Also, with monsters under the bed, possessed toys, alien parents, ghosts, and a handful of other things, Half-Minute Horrors pretty much covers all the bases for creepiness. The stories are short (I think the longest one was a little over 2 pages), yet incredibly entertaining.

"Delightful" describes maybe half of the entries in Half-Minute Horrors, a new volume out just in time for Halloween, edited by Susan Rich and boasting work by a who's who of contemporary writers. The other half, sadly, are less satisfactory. The purpose here is to give readers a spook or a shiver in 30 seconds or less. Some of these stories succeed.
