Excerpt from Kenwood Evangelical Church, Triennial Manual, 1885-1888 lichapel had brought into harmonious co-operation the members of various churches. It was not at all likely they would all unite cordially and permanently under any one denominational form. At the same time, it was recognized that one strong Church could serve the cause of Christ in this neighborhood better than several small ones. The formation Of an undenominational Church was therefore strongly advocated, ] - One which should represent the evangelical faith and spirit of this community. It was urged that such a Church would be scriptural in its conception, and that it was providentially indicated by the Circumstances of the case.
