You only get one shot to help your daughter realize her dream to play college softball. Greg Cruthers will help you make the most of this time-limited opportunity; your daughter's Softball Journey. Inside Greg Cruthers Softball Journey you'll find: Greg and his daughter Hayley's Softball Journey experience from the youth league, through school softball, the emotional college recruiting process, the college years, and the end. All levels of the game: Recreational, School, Travel, and College Softball. Costs: The cost for travel softball is divided into two parts - the younger and the high school years. You'll learn how to save time and money by learning what is and is not necessary, how to avoid money wasting situations, and how to save money on travel expenses. He'll show you how to help your daughter get recruited, what works, what doesn't, templates for contacting college coaches, what camps to do and how to work them, what skills videos are and how to use them, and all about visits, offers, and commitments. Scholarships: The types of scholarships (academic, athletic, and others as well as preferred walk-on's, partial, and full-rides), the likelihood of receiving any, how they work, and to manage your expectations. Tryouts: What tryouts are and the differences between school and travel softball tyouts, how to work tryouts, how to find a good team/club, how to handle failure and how to shine, and how to spot potential problems that you'll definitely want to stay clear from. Tournaments, Round Robins, and Friendlies: What they are, how they work, which one's matter, and the what the names mean - Exposure, Top 100, Premier, Invitational, etc. Coaches and Instructors: What the differences are between them, how to find quality instruction, how to determine whether your daughter is getting good instruction, and the costs. Parenting: Are you a helicopter parent? Do you coddle your baby girl? You'll learn what makes college coaches run away from your daughter, what Parent Goggles are, why you should avoid The Talks on the drives home, and the importance of your daughter taking breaks. Competition and Playing Time: You'll see how the two work together, why the philosophy of your daughter's coach matters, and why you should know it before accepting a spot on the team. College and beyond: You'll learn what to expect when your daughter heads to college, how your lives will change, what being a college softball player is really like, what it's like to be the parent of a college softball player, about medical issues, and changes in communication habits. Transferring to another College: You'll learn why player's transfer, about JUCO transfers, and the difficulty and process of transferring from an NCAA college to another. Life after Softball: You'll get a glimpse of what it's like for you and your daughter after the Softball Journey has ended. Make the most of your daughter's once in a lifetime opportunity with Greg Cruthers Softball Journey.

There are different characters and different worlds in this book. And there are quite a few lessons to be learned for every kid who reads this book as well. These stories will prompt kids to fuel their imagination and travel to different imaginary worlds.

Game Design Foundations, Second Edition covers how to design the game from the important opening sentence, the One Pager document, the Executive Summary and Game Proposal, the Character Document to the Game Design Document. The book describes game genres, where game ideas come from, game research, innovation in gaming, important gaming principles such as game mechanics, game balancing, AI, path finding and game tiers. The basics of programming, level designing, and film scriptwriting are explained by example. Each chapter has exercises to hone in on the newly learned designer skills that will display your work as a game designer and your knowledge in the game industry."

The true account of the Nicholsons, the father and son who sold national secrets to Russia. " One of the strangest spy stories in American history " (Robert Lindsey, author of The Falcon and the Snowman). Investigative reporter and Pulitzer Prize–finalist Bryan Denson tells the riveting story of the father and son co-conspirators who betrayed the United States. Jim Nicholson was one of the CIA ' s top veteran case officers. By day, he taught spycraft at the CIA ' s clandestine training center, The Farm. By night, he was a minivan-driving single father racing home to have dinner with his kids. But Nicholson led a double life. For more than two years, he had met covertly with agents of Russia ' s foreign intelligence service and turned over troves of classified documents. In 1997, Nicholson became the highest-ranking CIA officer ever convicted of espionage. But his duplicity didn ' t stop there. While behind the bars of a federal prison, the former mole systematically groomed the one person he trusted most to serve as his stand-in: his youngest son, Nathan. When asked to smuggle messages out of prison to Russian contacts, Nathan saw an opportunity to be heroic and to make his father proud. " Filled with fascinating details of the cloak-and-dagger techniques of KGB and CIA operatives, double agents, and spy catchers . . . A poignant and painful tale of family love, loyalty, manipulation and betrayal. ” —The Oregonian

This is the second volume in a series of chronological histories prepared by the Marine Corps History and Museums Division to cover the entire span of Marine Corps involvement in the Vietnam War. This volume details the Marine activities during 1965, the year the war escalated and major American combat units were committed to the conflict. The narrative traces the landing of the nearly 5,000-man 9th Marine Expeditionary Brigade and its transformation into the II Marine Amphibious Force, which by the end of the year contained over 38,000 Marines. During this period, the Marines established three enclaves in South Vietnam ' s northernmost corps area, I Corps, and their mission expanded from defense of the Da Nang Airbase to a balanced strategy involving base defense, offensive operations, and pacification. This volume continues to treat the activities of Marine advisors to the South Vietnamese armed forces but in less detail than its predecessor volume, U.S. Marines in Vietnam, 1954-1964; The Advisory and Combat Assistance Era.
