They live in our silent grief. Silent grief is painful. The triggers are still there that make the tears fall, so we leave the room and go to our safe place to let the tears flow. They come just as hard as they did the day our child died.

A suicide survivor or survivor of suicide is one of the family and friends of someone who has died by suicide.. Given the social stigma associated with suicide, suicide survivors are often unable to cope with their loss and grief using normal support systems, and are "forced into a privatized and individualistic mode of grieving," making the healing process even more
